

COVID-19 REVIEW OF GOVERNMENT SUPPORT MECHANISMS

On March 12, 2020, the government of Latvia declared a state of emergency till April 14, 2020, adopting various restrictive measures to limit the spread of COVID-19 in Latvia. In order to limit the damage to the national economy, on March 19, the government of Latvia adopted a special, limited-time draft law prepared by the Ministry of Finance. On March 20, it was approved in the Parliament with March 12 being the entry into force date.

On April 6 the Government declared to prolongue the state of emergency till April 12, 2020.

ALLOWANCE FOR IDLE TIME

THE PERIOD OF IDLE TIME IS A LIMITED TIME PERIOD LASTING FROM MARCH 14, 2020 UNTIL MAY 14, 2020, BUT FOR NO LONGER THAN THE VALIDITY PERIOD OF THE CABINET DECISION ON THE EMERGENCY SITUATION.

TAX PAYMENTS

The government will provide the possibility for the taxpayers to reschedule or postpone the duty payment for a period of up to three years. It will also refer to the taxpayers who already have received tax payment term extensions and who have incurred difficulties in covering the relevant payments.

LEASE

State and municipal institutions as well as state owned companies, for the validity period of the Law, exempt businesses from rent payments in the sectors affected by COVID-19 or decide on the rent payment reduction. Likewise, interest on delayed payment and penalties for delayed payments may be waived, except the utility payments.

SALARIES

If the employee is unemployed by the employer or is on idle time because of the measures laid down by the CofM, the state will support the employers in paying the compensations to employees, granting 75% of the remuneration, not exceeding 700 EUR per month. Idle time allowance is not a subject to the Personal Income Tax and State social insurance mandatory contributions.

APPLICABLE FOR THE ALLOWANCE:

The revenues due to the spread of COVID-19 decreased by at least 30 per cent in March or April 2020 in comparison with the respective month in 2019;

The revenues due to the spread of COVID-19 decreased by at least 20 per cent in March or April 2020 in comparison with the respective month in 2019, and they meet at least one of the following criteria:
